WELL DOME * WELL DONE * * * * * WELL DONE

Hello everyone,

It feels strange to be 'welcoming you back' to school this term when so many of your children are doing their learning at home.

This January, we find ourselves back in a national lockdown with all of the restrictions that that entails. But over the past 9 months, we have grown used to adapting quickly to late government announcements & to making sure that your children have everything they need to access their learning. And this term has been no exception. For some children, that means coming onsite; for most that has involved making sure that they have access to computers & the internet & quality teaching at home.

In the past few days we have seen children engaging in their learning in their droves; logging on to live teaching, completing & submitting work online & accessing videos on the Stebon YouTube channel. Some of our 3 year olds have even joined live reading sessions with their teachers. Wow!

Thank you to each & every parent who has spent the time to make sure their children have been able to do this - we really appreciate your support.

Staff have been delighted to see your children's faces & delighted also to see how enthusiastic they are about getting stuck into their learning, whether they are in school or at home. In the few cases where children are not accessing their learning at home, you may be asked to bring them into school where we have the resources to be able to support them.

Of course these amazing things don't happen by accident; they are the result of the skill & dedication ... & sheer hard work of the best staff team in London! Stebon, I salute you.

None of us wanted to be in this position but we are determined as a staff team to stay connected with you & to make sure that your children keep learning. As with any skill, we will keep practicing it & keep getting better, with your help.

Have a good - if quiet - weekend.

Kind regards Jeremy Iver (Headteacher)

Well done to everyone in school and at home for getting back to learning!

This term Year 3 are learning about what makes them a Super Human.

Here are some Y3 Ella Fitzgerald teachers showing their secret identities in the corridor!

Think about some Super Humans you may know...

Mahdiya (Y1 Jessica Ennis) and Madiyan (YR Beatrix Potter) cooked a delicious sweet potato and chickpea curry using the ingredients from the Take and Make recipe box, given out to families before the Christmas break.

Their mummy said 'The children had so much fun helping me out in the kitchen and enjoyed the meal.'

RAISE RESILIENCE London Parents

Helping Children Thrive In The New Normal

Series of six 1 hour sessions with materials to use at home

There is an immediate need to preserve childrens' wellbeing and build resilience at this point in history, where it is genuinely needed. You, and your children may be anxious for a whole host of reasons - leaving you and them feeling stressed, overwhelmed, or exhausted.

This series of on-line sessions start with personal resilience to support you to look after yourself (easily forgotten), and help you, help your children thrive when faced with uncertainty. The sessions provide reflective and practical approaches in resilience to support positive changes in cognition and behaviour.

This is an opportunity that really helps with the small day to day and can be a set of tools that help you and your children now and into the future.

Really informative, well delivered and easy to understand. Opened my mind and will be very useful for family life and work.

There are three date options to choose from. Click the link below for further information.
