

The last day of the Spring term is Friday 1st April 2022.

School will be open for the Summer term from Tuesday 19th April 2022.

School will be closed to pupils on Friday 22nd April for a staff INSET day.

We have raised £1058.92 from the Travelling Book fair this week. By buying books from the fair you have helped us earn more than £400 to spend on books for Stebon!

Year 6 had their mock SATs tests this week and they all did a great job. We're very proud of you, well done everyone!

Arts Award children practised the process of making cyanotypes using sunlight to develop photographic images. We learnt that a similar technique was used to make the very earliest photographs.

Olympus Explorers spent Friday afternoon preparing their exhibition of artworks and poetry created to raise awareness of pollution & recycling. We had to decide where each artwork would be, and create informative signage. Then we proudly showed our visitors around.

The children in Year 2 Brian Cox class published their innovated version of The Snail and the Whale onto special paper and paired it with their very own front covers.

Some even wrote a blurb for their story! You can see Muhammed reading his here.

We've also got our first Lexia graduate of 2022... *cue drumroll*

A GINORMOUS round of applause to Adam Al-Nezaary from Y4 Hellen Keller class, for completion of the Lexia Core 5 programme! We are super proud of you!

We'd like to give a MASSIVE round of applause to these children for using Lexia regularly! Thank you for all of your efforts!

Exciting news! We are opening a new 2 year old provision and taking 2 year olds at Stebon from April. Your child may be eligible for 15 hours of free education and childcare. Interested, or know someone who could be? Ask at the school office for more information.

Our school hall is available during the evenings, Monday to Saturday (after school) and all day on Sunday. If you would like to enquire about booking the hall, please call the office or email admin@stebon.org.uk
