Congratulations to Y6 Joy Adamson class who had 99% attendance this week!

Attendance

Every day matters – Every minute counts!

Stebon's magic number is 97 This is because we are aiming for 97% attendance.

This week's whole school attendance was 94%

Come on Stebon!

When conflict or war makes the headlines, it can cause feelings such as fear, sadness, anger and anxiety wherever you live.

UNICEF has shared tips on how to approach the conversation with your child and to provide them with support and comfort.

Please let a member of the leadership team know if you need further support.

In Art Club children learned facts about the famous artist Picasso and they made their own pieces of art.

Ahyan and Rayan H in Y6 Joy Adamson class. They have been writing their own narrative based on The Christmas Truce. They worked hard to complete their writing over the half term holidays and have since been editing to make it even better! They both did a brilliant job at setting the scene and describing their characters' mixed feelings.

The christmas truce Ahyan

It was a cold snowing day. The soldiers were worried and thinking if there parents are ok and they were scared because of the bombing. They were warming there hands up, after they tryed going sleep while they were sleeping they were hearing the bombing and gunshots, suddenly a jim settled on his bed looking at his mom and dad's pictures because it's there first christmas without them.

The christmas Truce
Rayan H

It Was a winter's night snowslakes ^{were} gently swirling down as the bombs echoed in the distanse. Tom herd the whisling wind and felt it stinging his frozen cheeks. Dark~~ness~~ engloed the endless sky. Tom Was thinking about his wife and his children. He was ~~was~~ worried about is they were ok.
