Y6 went to the Ben Kinsella Knife Crime workshops this week. Here is a recount by Yaqub in David Attenborough class of the visit:

"On Monday 1st July, we visited Ben Kinsella's knife crime workshop. We learnt about knife crime and how it can affect more than one person and maybe a whole community. My favourite activity was the prison room. I learnt that being friends with bad people can make you end up in the wrong places."

On Wednesday Y6 ARW & DA visited Morgan Stanley. Zakirah in David Attenborough class wrote a recount of the visit:

"On Wednesday 3rd of July, Morgan Stanley invited us to their office near Canary Wharf. On the visit we had a tour of the building, interviewed people and we designed a game (coding). My favourite part of the day was when we interviewed people to get a certain job and at the end of that we gave all our scores and found out who got each job."

Getting your childcare code for September

If you are an eligible working parent in England, you can apply:

- To get 15 hours childcare per week over 38 weeks of the year from September, your child must be at least 9 months old on or before 31 August.
- For 30 hours childcare per week over 38 weeks of the year, if you have a child aged 3 or 4 years old.

You have until 31 August to get your code from gov.uk to start in September. However, it's important to remember some childcare providers will have different deadlines. Make sure you speak to yours at an early stage to find out more about their arrangements.

If you plan to return to work from parental leave or start a new job by the end of September, you can apply for a childcare code at the same time as everyone else. You will then receive a letter in the post within 1 to 2 weeks.

Check your eligibility online on the Childcare Choices website.
